AFFAIRS OF THE RAILWAYS.

Personal, Local and General Notes. William Baldwin has been appointed general manager of the Montana Union road, succeeding Robert Law. The officials of the Cincinnati, Wabash &

Dayton, O. General Superintendent Barton, of the Long Island road, formerly on the L., B. & W., has selected as his assistant superintendent W. E. Lewis, who is well known in railroad circles West.

D. A. Peck, assistant superintendent of the Big Four system, was in the city yes-terday. He says it is only a question of time when the transportation offices will be removed to Indianapolis.

W. A. Sprott, the newly-appointed com-mercial agent of the Wabash for this terri-tory, spent yesterday in the city. The most western point he touches is Indianapolis, the eastern point Columbus, O., the southern point, Louisville, Ky. The Indianapolis Rolling-mill Company are large holders of the stock, are in favor of starting the mill up. It is believed that with the improvement in the price of rails the mill can be operated to advantage.

The Southwestern limited over the Vanderbilt lines seems to be a growing favorite. On the train west on Tuesday there were sixty-four first-class passengers through from New York to St. Louis, and yesterday the limited had fifty-two through

There is good authority for saying that the general managership of the Mackey lines has been offered to Norman Beckley, general manager of the Cincinnati, Wabash Michigan. No one will question his competency to fill the position should be decide to accept it.

The Wabash people hope to make a better arrangement for business with the Ohio, Indiana & Western road when the new management gets well in possession of the property. The former management has worked largely with the Chicago & Alton, ignoring the Wabash to a large extent. At the recent annual meeting of the stockholders of the Lake Erie & Western road but two of the directors to hold over for three years were elected—C. S. Brice and Geo. F. Stone. It is understood that the one vacancy will be filled at the next-meeting of the directors of the company.

At the meeting of the general passenger agents of the Western lines at Chicago, yesterday, it was agreed to restore the former rates of $30.65 from Chicago to Denver, taking effect Nov. 1. The rate has been $26 since early in the summer, when it was reduced on account of the manipula-tion of tourist tickets by scalpers.

The Louisville, New Albany & Chicago people claim that the five miles of track between Howland's and Massachusetts avenue, which they have just completed, is the best piece of track in the State of Indiana. Whether this be true or not, the com-pany has certainly put in the best street crossings of any in the city limits, and crossings which the other roads might well copy after. The Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton people have postponed the time of putting on new trains and shortening others until Sunday, the 20th inst. The Louisville, New Albany & Chicago was unable to adjust its time to meet that of the C., H. & D. before that date. The new trains which are to be put on will be exhibited here a couple of days next week.

The new president of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe is beginning to show his hand. It is stated that he has asked A. Fell, general Western agent of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western road, to take the position of traffic manager of the lines, and J. A. Hanley the position of general fraight agent general freight agent.

The superintendents of the roads entering here held their regular monthly meeting yesterday. The demurrage question was discussed and then laid over until the next meeting. The usual talk of using Belt road engines on the Union tracks to do the switching was indulged in without accomplishing anything looking like an early so-Intion of the question.

The Lake Erie & Western earned in September $232,186: increase over earnings in the corresponding month of 1888, $7,687. The Louisville, New Albany & Chicago earned $216,896; decrease this year, $723. The Toledo, St. Louis & Chicago earned $28,842; increase this year, $10.131. The Chesapeake & Ohio earned $565,670; increase this year, $119,942.

The trains of the Big Four (Cincinnati & Chicago division) vesterday came into In-dianapolis on schedule time, being the first day that they have done so since the new schedule, which shortened the time of several trains, took effect. One of the trains, coming west, made the run from Shelbyville to the Belt road in twenty-one minutes and thirty seconds; the distance is 2212

The Cincinpati, Hamilton & Dayton people claim that Train 31, east from here on Sundays, is the fastest train between stations run in this country. On the train are six cars, and the run from Indianapolis to Hamilton is made in two hours and thirtyfive minutes: distance, 100 miles. On Sun-day this train makes all the stops, numbering seventeen, which time is to be de-

The Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton will put on a through car between Indian-apolis and Toledo, via Dayton, with the new time schedule. The car will be hauled, going east, on train which leaves Indianapolis at 10:35 A. M., and will reach here on the train which arrives at the Union Station at 4:55 P. M. This road has taken off the sleeping coach run between Indian-apolis and Detroit.

Commencing with Sunday next, the through trains of the Louisville, New Albany & Chicago road will be run solid between Indianapolis and Chicago, without paying any attention to the trains run over the L. N. A. & C.'s Louisville division. This will enable them to shorten the running time of these trains somewhat, as between Monon and Chicago no stops of importance are to be made.

The office of train-master on the Atchison. Topeka & Santa Fe system has been abolished and the duties of the position will hereafter be performed by the chief train-dispatcher. A number of Eastern and Western roads have, in the last year, abolished this office, the train-master often interfering more with the movement of trains than the chief train-dispatcher and his entire force were able to overcome.

President Perkins, of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, has started on a two months' inspection trip of the company's lines and its immediate feeders, he being desirous of ascertaining what further can be done to increase their business with such feeders. His trip will doubtless result in the establishing of more friendly rela-tions with roads which naturally should affiliate with them in handling business.

The Pennsylvania inspection party will reach here to-morrow afternoon, stop over night, and on Saturday go over the Van-dalia, spend Sunday in St. Louis; on Monday go over the Cairo & Vincennes road to Vincennes; on Tuesday inspect the Indianapolis & Vincennes road, remain here Tuesday night, and on Wednesday inspect the Jeffersonville, Madison & Indianapolis road. They expect to reach Philadelphia, on their return from the annual inspection trip, Oct. 19, traveling while absent 3,000 miles on their own system and several hundred miles on other lines. The Chicago, Muncie, Richmond & Cincinnati Railroad Company was organized in Evansville yesterday. It is the intention of the new company to build a line from a point on the Cincinnati, Wabash & Michigan railroad between Jonesboro and Fairmount, in Grant county, Indiana, to Cincinnati, making more than twenty miles the shortest route between Cincinnati and Chicago, and by the extension of the Louis-ville, Evansville & St. Louis railroad to Harrison, or Cincinnati, the shortest line between St. Louis and Cincinnati. The capital stock is $1,000,000. The directors are D. J. Mackey, William Heilman, James L. Mackey, E. B. Morgan, W. J. Lewis, G. J. Grammer, and Edwin Taylor.

The fourth international annual convention of the Brotherhood of Railway Section Foremen of America, in session at Chicago, has elected the following grand officers: Grand chief, James Sweeney, of East St. Louis, Ill.; vice-grand chief, W. D. Dempsey, of Epsworth, Ia.; grand secretary and treasurer, S. J. Pegg, Montreal; grand organizer, M. O'Dowd, Emporia, Kan. Three members of the grand executive committee: M. Morrison, of Ottumwa, Ia.; Thomas Nicholson, of St. Louis; James McName, of Memphis, Tenn. The next international convention will be held at Toledo, O., commencing the first Tuesday in October, 1890. All reports of grand officers and delegates indicate that the brotherhood is in a most prosperous condition.

CULLINGS FROM THE COURTS.

Kansas People Come Here for Expert Testimony as to What Is Pure Water. G. E. Manchester, attorney for the waterworks company, of Burlington, Kan., and E. N. Conaly, representing that city, were here yesterday, taking depositions from Prof. J. N. Hurty, which will be introduced as expert evidence in a litigation about to be begun in Burlington. Some years ago the water-works company erected buildings and the city accepted them. Later on, it was claimed, the company had resorted to fraud in making its contracts, and furthermore that the supply of water was not healthy. On this basis the city refused | tion and manner he is the finished artist. hold a meeting to-day. The testimony of Prof. Hurty will be confined to the relative purity of water that may come from a running stream or a well. This is the point at issue in the Burlington courts.

Judge Taylor granted three divorces and solemnized a marriage yesterday. Martha Woodrum was granted a divorce from William A. Woodrum on grounds of drunkenness, and was given the custody of their children. William Bogan also secured a divorce from his wife Peachee, the court finding her guilty of unfaithful conduct; and Martha Hake was granted a divorce from Charles Hake on account of the lat-ter's drinking habits and failure to provide. Joseph Fertig and Annie Dietrich were united in marriage in the Judge's private room.

Work of the Grand Jury.

The county grand jury yesterday discharged Edward Martin, held on a charge of larceny, there being no evidence to justify an indictment. The jury also spent some time in considering the facts attending the death of the unknown man who was shot by Emsley Wright.

Notes from the Dockets. Elizabeth Strub, sixty-eight years of age, was yesterday declared to be of unsound mind. She lives on Meek street.

Judge Gresham left the city for Chicago, last night. Opinions in the cases in his court under advisement will be delivered

In 'Squire Alford's court, yesterday, Charles E. Pearson, charged with an as-sault upon his wife, was acquitted. In the same court Aurelius Boaz and James Duke filed complaints for damages against Charles J. Gardner. The latter, it is said, was instrumental in causing the death of some live stock belonging to the plaintifts by putting among them cattle affected with the Texas fever.

The Court Record. SUPREME COURT OPINIONS.

15002. The Supreme Sitting, Order of the Iron Hall, vs. Fritz Stein. Marion S. C. Affirmed. Olds, J.—Appellee was a member of the Iron Hall, a benevolent society, and made a claim for sick benefits. The laws of the order require a member to have his sickness certified to by the relief committee and medical examiner of his branch, and to present the certificate, properly signed, to the supreme medical director. One of the local officers refused to sign the certificate and appellee brought suit on his claim. Held, that he could maintain the action, although the law of the order pro-vided that no suit should be maintained until all remedies of appeal within the or-der had been exhausted. By reason of the neglect of the local officer he was prevented from obtaining a proper certificate to pre-

13871. Board of Commissioners of Wabash County vs. Ephraim Pearson. Huntington C. C. Affirmed. Elliott, C. J.—Complaint charges appellant with having negligently failed to keep a public bridge safe for travel. The appellee's cause of action did not accrue until he was injured, and although the defendant's negligence runs back to 1871, the action is not barred by the statute of limitations. 2. When it is charged that the county negligently con-structed the bridge of unsafe and unsuitable material, it was the wrong-doer, and it was not necessary to allege that it had notice of the unsafe condition of the bridge. 3. When the county knew that the persons selected to repair the bridge were incompetent, and that their work was negligently done, so as to leave the bridge in an unsafe condition, there is a liability for injury. 4. When the verdict is perfect on its face, and so fully finds the facts as to enable the court to pronounce judgment upon it, a motion for a new venire de novo will be denied, although the verdict may not find upon all of the issues.

11961. John Ward Walker, administrator, vs. Samuel Steele, jr., et al. Hancock C. C. Reversed. Berkshire, J.-The code does not recognize any such pleading as a disclaimer, except in actions for partition and to quiet title. (Sec. 1072, R. S. 1881.) 2. Under Section 498, R. S., to render a person incompetent to testify as a witness against an executor or administrator he must be a necessary party to the issue and the record, and his interests must be adverse to the estate. 3. When an act is competent so also are declarations of the persons engaged in its performance constituting part of the thing done. 4. Where a guardian is incompetent to testify under Section 498, R. S., his wife is also incompe-

18648. Martin Prillmian vs. John W. Mendenhall et al. Tipton C. C. Affirmed. Coffey, J.-Where, in injunction proceedings, there was no request for a special finding, but the court referred the facts to a jury for information, the facts returned by the jury cannot be treated as a special finding. The finding of the court must be treated as a general finding.

SUPERIOR COURT. Room 1-Hon. Napoleon B. Taylor, Judge. Joseph Chetwyne et al. vs. Frank H. Selden; on acceptance. Dismissed by plaintiff. Wm. Schaefer vs. John C. Copsey et al.; injunction. Cause dismissed George Angaletas vs. Meridian National Bank; on draft, etc. Finding and judgment

AMUSEMENTS.

PROFESSOR BLACK'S CONCERT.

Prof. J. S. Black is modest enough to call his annual concerts public rehearsals when advertised, but on the programmes he had rightfully placed "Thirty-sixth Annual Concert." For more than that number of years he has been the faithful and efficient teacher of hundreds of pupils-possibly thousands-and at every concert he has brought out a number of pupils who do him great credit, and last night was no exception. When the curtain was raised there was an audience present that comfortably filled the Grand Operahouse, and others came in later. The programme as it appeared in the Sunday Journal was fully carried out. Without exception the voices were good, and showed careful study. All sang selections from the standard operas, and many of them were of exceeding difficulty. Those taking part were Misses Alice and Edith Graham and Miss Lulu Fisher. of Noblesville. Miss Nellie Bicknell, Miss Jannette Halford and Mr. Edwin S. Swift each sang a solo, and also in a concerted number. The last number, a "glee" by Cooke, was also participated by pupils, Mrs. F. W. Day and Messrs. Swift, Fitzgibbons and Smock, and by Prof. Black. The assistance of others, who were pupils some time ago, was given. Mrs. M. H. Spades sang a solo, accompanied by Mr. Spades, and has never acquitted herself more acceptably to her hearers. Mrs. Jessie Whitridge DeWolf, of Minneapolis, formerly of this city, sang the air and variations of the "Carnival of Venice," showing marked improvement since leaving here. Her wonderfully high soprano notes are clear as a bell. Mr. Gustav Recker accompanied with his flute solo, and also in a concerted number. The Gustav Recker accompanied with his flute the solo of Miss Alice Graham, and shared her honors, and Prof. H. J. Schonacker con-tributed one of his own piano compositions very pleasingly. The chief interest of the evening, however, interest of the evening, however, centered in the appearance of Mr. Charles Holman Black, son of Prof. Black, who has been studying for some months with the eminent master, singer and composer, Faure, of Paris, France. Various Indiana people, who have returned this summer from Europe, reported having heard him sing while there, and were loud in his praises, but even his most sanguine friends did not expect him to be the artist he proved himself to be. In voice, cultiva-The selections were of sufficient variety to show that he is equally fitted for each, and the applause which he received after each number and sometimes in the midst of some specially fine bit of vocal work showed how he was appreciated. Twice he answered the applause, singing, first, "Don't be Sorrowful, Darling." and afterward, that charming "Rose Marie." Mr. Black, aside from his three solos, sang in the duet from "Favorita" with Miss Halford. The latter's voice has greatly improved, and has a peculiarly even quality, no matter how high or low the register, and blended with the mellow notes of Mr. Black. Artistically the concert was a success, and it might also be said to be a success florally, for nearly every singer was the recipient of many beautiful flowers. Special mention should be made of the piano accompaniments played by Mr. Julius F. Kohl, a most necessary part of any musical entertainment.

In Chicago Emma Abbott began a week's engagement, Monday evening, at the Grand Opera-house, with every element of a marked success. It has been claimed from the start that Abbott opera this year means more than it has done heretofore, because, more than it has done heretofore, because, aside from all the principals, it is said to have a stronger chorus and more skillful orchestra than ever. It is promised that the operas will be put on here with great richness and display. The first opera, "Rose of Castile," will be presented at the Grand Opera-house next Monday evening. In the second and third acts it reveals the splendor of the Castillian court, and in it Emma Abbott not only sings a strong role, but, as Queen of Castile, appears in beautiful costumes. The music of the opera throughout is brilliant, the plot vivid and interesting. The succeeding operas are to interesting. The succeeding operas are to be, Tuesday, "Il Trovatore;" Wednesday matinee, "Fra Diavolo" (reduced prices); Wednesday evening, "La Traviata." Miss Abbott appears each evening. The advance sale opens this morning.

The engagement of H. C. Kennedy's New York company in Charles S. Gayler's melo-drama, "Lights and Shadows," will begin at English's Opera-house to-night and con-tinue throughout the week. The piece has been somewhat changed since it was last seen here, and in its present shape it is said to be stronger than it was at that time. There are several realistic scenes, and as the drama will be presented by a capable company, the performances at English's promise to be of a character that ought to attract large audiences.

"Nobody's Claim" will replace "The Red Spider" at the Park Theater this afternoon. The former is Mr. Dowling's original success. It will run during the remainder of

"A Midnight Bell," Hoyt's popular play, the best one he has ever written, will come to the Grand the latter part of next week. "Sam Houston; or the Hero of Texas," is the name of J. H. Wallick's new drama, to be produced at the Park next week.

CHRISTIAN WORKERS.

Street Methodist Church.

The congregation of the Seventh-street Methodist Church gave a welcome reception last evening to its new pastor, Rev. J. H. Tevis. The church was prepared for the occasion with some flowers, and the official board, who had all the arrangements in charge, made every person welcome. The board consisted of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Miller, Dr. Ridpath, Mr. and Mrs. David Reynolds, Mr. John King, Mrs. Jessie Wright, Mr. O. B. Johnson, Mr. George Spahr, Mr. John Booth, Mr. W. L. Miller, Mr. Peter Hereth and Mr. Ira Bugbee. After the company had assembled, Dr. F. C. Woodburn made a welcome address, which was responded to felicitously by Mr. Tevis. The congregation numbers about 200 members, and Mr. Tevis finds the church in good condition. Rev. F. S. Tincher, the retiring pastor, was invited, and expected to be present, but was prevented by his preparing for removal to Liberty. He has been most successful during his pastorate, and in the past year he has provided for the paying of the entire church debt, which places these people in an enviable position financially, and will lighten the burden for the incoming pastor. Mr. Tevis is not unknown in the Indianapolis district, as he has just finished a three years' connection with Fletcher-place Church, and is noted as one of the strong men in the Methodist Church. There is no doubt but that the noble work begun by Mr. Tincher will be capably carried for-ward by Mr. Tevis. A feature of last night's entertainment was the rendering of some selections by the choir. The evening was an enjoyable one socially, and Mr. Tevis can not doubt but what he is most welcome, and will find able helpmeets in this church. Y. M. C. A. Affairs. The Y. M. C. A. classes in book-keeping, commercial arithmetic, free hand and mechanical drawing began last night with quite a large number of pupils in each. The Senate was also organized, and adjourned to meet next Wednesday evening, at 7:45 o'clock. A physical class of fifty-four members, under the direction of W. A. McCulloch, was started. Mr. McCulloch is ready to prescribe exercise for any member, and to make physical examinations. Classes will be formed at times to suit the con-venience of all business and professional

A match game of foot-ball will take place Saturday next, at 4 o'clock, between an eleven from the Deaf and Dumb Institute and a Y. M. C. A. team. A practice game occurs to-day at 4 o'clock. All members are invited to engage in the practice. The annual meeting of the association to hear reports from the committees and to elect officers for the ensuing year, occurs next Monday evening. The Woman's Auxiliary will hold its first meeting next Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Called to the Albany Church.

Dr. McLeod, of the Second Presbyterian Church, has had under consideration for some time a call from the First Congregational Church, Albany, N. Y. He cannot take definite action thereon until released from his present pastoral duties, and to consider that matter he has called a conconsider that matter he has called a congregational meeting for the 17th inst. The Doctor will probably accept the Albany cali, which is one of several he has received. He has been the pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church six years, and none of the ministers of his denomination, or of others, except Dr. Edson, who were here when he came are now in the city.

SEALED PROPOSALS WILL BE RECEIVED Sat the Office of Public Schools until 12 m., Wednesday, Oct. 16, 1889, for furnishing to the Board of School Commissioners, of Indianapolis, a temporary loan of $35,000. Notes for $5,000 of said loan to be dated Oct. 18, 1889, and all payable Jan. 31, 1890, with interest at a rate not to exceed 6 per cent. per annum. The right is reserved to reject any or all bids. Address bids to J. B. CONNER, Chairman Committee Finance and Auditing.

Damage from Natural Gas. A natural gas explosion which blew off the plastering on the wall separating a parlor and dining-room in J. H. Baldwin's residence, at 385 North Pennsylvania street, occurred last Tuesday evening. A leak in the pipe under the floor and hearth allowed the opening between the studding in the wall to fill with gas, which ignited from the grate. The rooms were considerably disfigured and the family badly frightened.
